Dear Allen:

In answer to your note of May 30 in regard to Max Thornberg, I am enclosing a copy of my letter to him of May 16. I believe he has crowded his relationship with me a little bit and, as you will see, my expression of hope for further help from him was little more than a courtesy.

Very sincerely,

Bill

William H. Jackson
Special Assistant to the President

Dear Mr. Thornberg:

Enclosed is the article by Max Millikan which I mentioned. Your comments will be greatly appreciated.

There is, I understand, an expanded version of this article prepared by Millikan with the assistance of others. If the enclosed article is of real interest to you I shall be glad to send the expanded version.

You were extremely kind to call on me and I apologize for having taken up so much of your time. However I found what you said most instructive and helpful to me and I hope for more help from you in the future.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,

William H. Jackson
Special Assistant to the President
